HOME DESCRIPTION

Completely rebuilt to new construction standards behind a protected historic facade. New CO, builder warranty, appliance warranties, new mechanicals, new systems throughout, with the irreplaceable character of Glenwood-Brooklyn's historic streetscape.

Nestled in the heart of Raleigh's coveted Glenwood-Brooklyn neighborhood, this completely reimagined 1915 bungalow masterfully blends historic character with sophisticated modern living. Showcasing timeless Arts & Crafts-inspired architecture, the home has been thoughtfully remodeled from top to bottom while preserving the authentic details that give it warmth and soul.

Inside, an expansive open-concept layout creates a bright, airy feel rarely found in historic homes. Original architectural charm like the preserved fireplace and repurposed original kitchen sink and counter, pair seamlessly with every modern convenience, offering stylish, effortless living and entertaining. The spacious floor plan includes five bedrooms, with the flexibility for the fifth bedroom to serve as a private office, studio, or guest retreat.

Outside, enjoy the rare convenience of multiple parking options -- including alley access parking, a front parking pad, and evening permit-only street parking reserved for neighborhood residents.
